Feedback sheet

These scales assess various aspects of your performance in this written assignment. Marks to the right indicate a better performance in the stated objective. They are NOT strict numeric grades used to calculate your score for each section.

POOR

OUTSTANDING

1. CONTENT

1.1 Summary of paper

(1.5 marks)

Not all sections of the paper summarised

Hypotheses, materials & methods, results and conclusions clearly summarised

1.2 Critique

(1.5 marks)

No critical analysis, paper only summarised

Paper critically analysed (i.e. an opinion given) and arguments well supported

1.3 Intellectual breadth

(1.5 marks)

No evidence of research beyond the chosen paper

Consideration of the paper in a broader context, reference to other papers

1.4 Organisation & structure

(1.5 marks)

No structure

Clear structure following logical order, clear conclusion

2. PRESENTATION

2.1 Oral presentation

(2 marks)

Presentation read (from notes or Powerpoint slides)

Relaxed and confident presentation style, good eye contact with audience

Presentation difficult to understand (too soft/ mumbling)

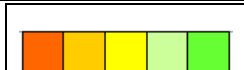

Presentation audible and with clear articulation throughout

2.2 Visual presentation

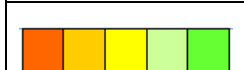

(2 marks)

Powerpoint slides rarely referred to

Slides integrated appropriately (audience guided through them), all figures and/or tables explained

Most slides poorly organised, cluttered with large amounts of text or multiple figures that are distracting or too small

Slides contain an appropriate amount of information that is legible from all parts of the room

2.3 Length & pace of presentation

(1 mark)

Pace too slow or too fast throughout, or does not adhere to time limit

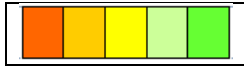

Presentation makes good use of the allocated time, does not rush at end

2.4 Answering questions

(1 mark)

Stumbled and poorly handled

Confidently and thoughtfully answered

3. PRESENCE AND ENGAGEMENT

Attendance at BOTH tutorial sessions, interested & active involvement (asking questions)

(3 marks)
